FROM THE EDITOR

The new newsletter format is due to two reasons. The first (and foremost) is that of necessity! I had major computer problems this month and ended up losing all my data. (I only thought I had it backed up!)

The second reason is that I wanted to try a full page format to see if that worked out any better for us.

This newsletter may be a bit on the brief side since I just today (Monday the 22nd) am back in business. I lost most of my pictures and history so re-creating everything takes much more time the first time! I still don't have my calendar program and address list back, so they aren't included in this issue. Hopefully they will be next time.

The September meeting of the Sycamore A Model A Club was called to order on September 10 at 6:35p at the MCL Cafeteria in Terre Haute.

Members present were: Bartons, Beans, J Brown, Fields, Fishers, Fortenberrys, C Greiner, R Hastings, R Henneman, Jacobs, D Logsdon, Millers, B Murphy, M Perigo, J Roan, Staggs, B Stewart, B Holloway, Thompsons, R Wolfe, C Brace, J Page & son, C Kahl, Ruth Engs-Franz, J

Franz, J Moores and JC and Blankenships.

New members Ruth and Jeff Franz, Connie Kahl, and visitor Debi Rowe were introduced. They are all helping out with Victory Days.

Last month's meeting minutes were accepted as printed in the newsletter.

The treasurer reported a balance of $1198.50 in the checking account. Sharon also has some logos and t-shirts left.

Due to the extra Victory

Days business and a fashion presentation by Ruth, the usual committee reports were omitted.

A Victory Days volunteer list was circulated for workers to either agree with of change as necessary to fit their schedule.

Ruth presented a program on vintage dress for the 1942 and older years to help members know what would be appropriate for the Victory Days event.

Connie Kahl was a supportive model for the presentation. The presentation was very informative and helpful.

J Page informed us that the Fairground board would be happy to work with the Model A Club if they would like to offer a swap meet or any other event.

Rosella Barton was the winner of the 50/50 drawing.

The meeting adjourned at 7:10p.
